Will Hold Get-together
Tuesday Night At The High School

A get-together of graduates and former students of all Maine colleges will be held Tuesday night, April 8, starting at 8 o'clock. The place is the High School and faculty members and coaches will be present from all four Maine colleges with brief talks, movies and special entertainment features.

It is imperative that every graduate and former student who can attend this session for it will be important to the colleges as well as an opportunity to hear direct from the college and meet old college friends. The High School Orchestra will provide music and there will naturally be community singing. The old Alma Mater, etc. A small charge will be made and every cent of the proceeds will go toward a Rockland High School Scholarship Fund. This get-together plan was first tried out in Portland recently and met with such success that the local committee feels it will be a grand time for Rockland.

Fred C. Black, Principal Joseph E. Blaisdell, Horace C. Maxey, Ralph Wiggins, Frederic Bird, Allan P. McAlary, Almon Cooper, Jr., Alan L. Bird, Charles C. Wotton and John M. Richardson are on the committee, representing all four colleges. The invitation to

GIFTS STILL ACCEPTABLE

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—In response to the Red Cross drive to secure furniture for recreation rooms for the soldiers in Portland, several offers came in just too late for our collection March 29. Our books are still open, and we hope many more offers will be made before the Army makes the first trip to pick up the gifts. There is a great lack of tables, lamps, playing cards and games.

The Chairman, Red Cross

the public and to students cannot be too strongly emphasized. They are urgently desired to be present, and will not only see the coaches, faculty members, pictures, etc., but will be helping the new scholarship fund.

BUSIEST IN TWENTY YEARS

Snow Shipyard Employing 315 Men—Next
Launching April 14, May Be Private

With 315 men on its payroll at the present moment, Snow Shipyards, Inc. is distributing a very busy week every Friday, and a large percentage of it is finding its way into Rockland's trade channels. From a numerical standpoint it represents the largest individual industry Rockland had had since the early 1920's excepting of course the Rockland & Rockport Lime Company, which at that time had a much larger payroll.

The shipyard corporation is now completing a trawler, the Belmont, which will be launched April 14, has practically planned two of the mine sweepers being built for the Government and is engaged in the construction of three others. The contract calls for 10 mine sweepers in all, two of which are due for delivery in July, three each in October, and the remaining two in November.

Two mine-sweeper keels will be laid the moment the Belmont goes overboard. The engines are already in the two sweepers which were begun first, and four more engines are on the dock awaiting their turn for installation. This work is done before the craft are planned.

The Belmont is being built for the U. S. Navy by the company of Boston. Whether the christening ceremony will be witnessed by other than the owners and builders awaits the reply to Manager Fred C. Gattcomb's letter now in the hands of the Federal Government which has no intention of permitting snoopers in the yard where Government war craft are being built.

The launching will take place shortly before noon, one week from next Monday.

The Government work at the Snow shipyard is being supervised by Hawley Brennan, civilian inspector of labor and materials.

Baptist Youth Rally

It was necessary to increase the seating capacity of the Rockport Baptist Church auditorium by adding chairs to accommodate the large crowd which attended the evening session when the Knox County Christian Endeavor Rally was held there Monday. It was estimated that over 250 were present, with the Young People's Society from the Thomaston First Baptist, Rockland First Baptist, Littlefield Memorial, Rockport Baptist being largely represented and the Tenants Harbor Baptist Society, with a membership of 29 having a 100 percent attendance.

The newly elected president, Ansel Young presided and after general singing led by Rev. C. Vaughn Overman and prayer by Rev. J. Charles MacDonald of the Rockland First Baptist Church, the awarding of the banners for the largest attendance and the largest percentage of attendance was made, both going to the Tenants Harbor Church. A beautiful service in story and song was then presented by the Radio Ensemble and Rev. J. Erwin Wright, resident of the New England Fellowship. This service depicted the betrayal, crucifixion, and resurrection of Christ. The service was brought to a close with benediction by Rev. Charles A. Marsteller of the Littlefield Memorial Church.

The afternoon session was devoted to the business meeting, at which time these officers were elected: President, Ansel Young, Rockland First Baptist; vice presidents, Roger Conant of Littlefield Memorial, Frederick Quimby of Rockport Baptist; secretary, Arlene Coolbroth, Tenants Harbor; assistant secretary, Aaron Simmons, Port Clyde; treasurer, Walter Chapman, Thomaston; pastoral advisor, Rev. C. Vaughn Overman; auditor, Herman Hart, Rockland First Baptist. The nominating committee consisted of Miriam Dorman, Esther Achorn and Kenneth C. Hooper.

Over 150 registered for the supper which was served by the Try-to-help Club of the hostess church under the direction of Mrs. Alice Marston, Mrs. Edith Overlock, Mrs. Hazel Cain and Mrs. Lina Joyce with the members of the West Rockport and Rockport Christian Endeavor Societies serving as waitresses.

NO TEMPORARY AFFAIR

In many quarters there has doubtless been much speculation as to what would be the fate of industrial plants working on National Defense in the event of a sudden cessation of war. The Todd-Bath Shipyard in South Portland where there are contracts for $50,000,000 worth of work, for instance. The Portland Lions Club received enlightenment on this subject Tuesday when John Sweeney, engineer in charge of the construction of the South Portland plant, told the members, that the yard was being built with permanency in view, and would be in operation for a long time. Thomas R. Allen, general manager of the South Portland plant and Bath Iron Works, said that the former was not merely a temporary plant, and is being built of steel and concrete—not wood and plywood. This must be tremendously reassuring to the people of Portland and South Portland, where the vastness of the undertaking is the biggest feature of the 20th century.

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING

Something like the proverbial tempest in the teapot is the row which is annually raised over the matter of paying poll taxes, and we are somewhat surprised to find the American Institute of Public Opinion making a nationwide poll on the subject. The result shows that the country in general is rather opposed to the poll tax but that in eight poll-tax States those who have paid their tax 59 percent favor its retention, 34 percent are opposed and 7 percent have no opinion. We confess to a feeling of surprise that there should be any hullabaloo about such a comparatively trivial matter. In these days when the average taxpayer is assessed in three or four figures it does not seem understandable that any man should be unwilling to pay a poll tax of $3, receiving precisely the same privileges in the way of police, fire protection, etc., that the property owner does. In this era of Taxation, spelled with a capital T, there is something wrong about the man who is unwilling to chip as little as $3 for the benefits he receives.

SLEEPER FOR SPEAKER

The closing hours of the State legislative session are productive of the usual crop of ambitious statesmen. And in this class we may well include one of our own representatives, Cleveland Sleeper, Jr., who, after serving nearly four terms, has concluded to make a militant campaign for the Speakership of the next House. This would involve, of course, his nomination for and election to a fifth term, but this could not be considered improbable in view of the large vote he always receives at the hands of the Rockland electorate. Mr. Sleeper is a practical business man, an astute politician, and knows the ins and outs of legislative doings as well as any man at the State Capitol today. If anybody can break the Portland ring he ought to be that man.

MORNING'S NEWS IN A NUTSHELL

The strike situation grows worse. Four men were slain in the Harlan coal fields yesterday and many were injured in Dearborn, Mich. There were demands in Congress for legislation to curb strikes in defense industries.

The Germans are massing troops on the Yugoslavia border, 50 miles from Belgrade. Action is expected today.

The Boston grand jury has indicted 10 Germans for sabotage.

Massana, the only major point left under the Italian flag in Eritrea, is said to be on the verge of capitulation.

The death of the Hungarian prime minister, "under tragic circumstances," is announced.

THE BATTLE OF THE ATLANTIC

(Herald Tribune)
For the third successive week since the disastrous last days of February the Admiralty has been able to announce a reduction in shipping losses, and this in the face of colossal German claims and brave boasts from Berlin that the long-awaited Spring offensive on British ports and shipping has been launched. The corrected losses of 141,314 tons for the week ending March 3 were appalling enough to lend credence to the belief that the "all-out" war had in fact begun. But the losses were down to 98,832 tons (the final figure) in the week after, and now to 59,141 tons for the week ending March 23. The latter figure is less than the average weekly loss since the beginning of the war and markedly less than the average since the Nazis reached the Atlantic ports in July.

A single relatively good week, of course, is no more indicative than a single very bad one. But averages give some standard of comparison. The average for the whole war is 65,500 tons a week, for the eight months since the fall of France (July-February inclusive) 79,500, and for the four weeks ending March 23, embracing the reputed "all-out" Nazi offensive, 98,400 tons. Compared with the Nazi boasts of what their offensive would do, this is good enough to awake a wonder, at least, as to whether the British, in the Atlantic, in their furious bombing of submarine bases and in their thunderous attack upon the Scharnhorst and Gneisenau at Brest, may not have been winning a naval victory even more important than that in the Ionian Sea. And the crushing of Mussolini's navy will release still greater forces, it must be remembered, for the Battle of the Atlantic.

Nevertheless, a weekly average of 98,400 tons is still far too serious for complacency. It comes on top of losses which have already exceeded the tons lost in the thirty months between the outbreak of war in 1914 and the declaration of unrestricted submarine war in February, 1917. And it is the equivalent of 5,000,000 tons a year; while it is estimated that no more than 3,000,000 of additional tonnage can be provided this year by British and American yards, by scraping the bottom of other services and by utilizing the whole of the Axis tonnage which has been laid up in the Americas.

Something more than even the superhuman efforts of the British will be needed if the all-out aid to Britain is to get to Britain and not to the bottom of the Atlantic. Germany and Italy have had the recklessness, it is said, to "demand" the return of the seized ships under international law. The only possible reply, it seems to us, is to confiscate them immediately and fling them into the gap created by the violent and colossal disregard for all international law represented by the German submarine war. But that will not be enough. The President is said to favor the transfer of more naval units to the British; Secretary Knox is said to prefer the speedier and concededly more efficient course of using the ships directly under our own flag and with their own trained crews for convoy. One or the other procedure must plainly be promptly adopted and pursued with all energy.

The Black Cat

(By The Roving Reporter)

I have my old friend Bob Packard to thank for some old dance orders, graduating programs and dinner menus, ranging from the early 80's to the mid-90's. I start these souvenirs with the graduation of the class of 1884, which took place in the Universalist Church. The program features were: Salutatory, Annie Farwell Packard; history, Hattie Ella Crockett; prophecy, Louise Marden Gurdy; essays, Margaret Fales Pierce, Aldana Blake Crocker, Annie Belle Metcalf, and Anna Emma Coughlin; valedictory, Effie Luella Smith. Miss Coughlin also wrote the class ode. The participating clergymen were Rev. W. S. Roberts and Rev. H. A. Philbrook. The Orpheus Club furnished music and John Lovejoy awarded the diplomas.

Another souvenir was the menu used by the Thorndike Hotel Sunday, June 16, 1889, and was certainly a very elaborate card beginning with Providence River oysters on ice and ending with English walnut ice cream—with Dream cake. The hotel was conducted by Berry Bros. with B. R. Andros as manager. All older citizens remember the genial "Ran" Andros, whose career here was climaxed by winning a large prize in the Louisiana lottery.

Bob Packard was, and is, an expert dancer, and the dance orders which he has presented to me are reminiscent of other days—among them Lancers, Newport and Redowa, Schottische, Portland Fancy, Yarsouviene and Mazurka. The closing dance was invariably a "Home Sweet Home" waltz.

Cooper's Mills has an entrant in the "Cream" contest. She is Celia Wellman, 13, and she seems to lead the field with 31 words. Her list follows: a, ace, acer, acme, acre, am, arc, are, arm, cam, came, can, care, cram, ear, era, ere, ma, mace, macer, mar, marc, mare, me, near, ra, race, ram, re, ream.

A long-time contributor to The Courier-Gazette, Mrs. Carrie Waltz of Broadway sends in this one: Example in Rule of Three: "If 1-3 of 6 be 3 what will 1-4 of 20 be?"

A Missing Sister

Years Ago At the Age of Eighteen

The Courier-Gazette is in receipt of a letter from Ilo Jean Knowlton of 418 Hunnewell street, Needham Heights, Mass., who is seeking the whereabouts of her sister Ruth E. Myers, who left her home in Lubec 20 years ago, at the age of 15.

Belief that she might be located in Rockland was inspired by an advertisement which appeared in the Boston Globe last October. It read:

"Write Box 253 Rockland, Me. Ruth."

The advertisement was answered by the missing girl's mother and Mrs. Knowlton's aunt, Mrs. Charles Greenlaw of South Portland, and when several weeks elapsed bringing no reply, Mrs. Knowlton wrote to the Rockland postmaster, only to learn that the names of boxholders must be withheld by law. A letter to the Police Department was futile.

Mrs. Knowlton's anxiety to locate her sister is due in part to the fact that her mother is suffering from a nervous breakdown, and news from the missing doubt would serve to cheer her.

Mrs. Knowlton's mother is Fannie S. Collier Myers and her father is Willard Eugene Myers; both live in Medford, Mass.

Postmaster James Connellan, interviewed yesterday, quoted Section 489 of Postal Laws and Regulations:

"Postmasters shall not disclose the names of box holders to any other person than the clerks of their respective post office and post office inspectors."

Mrs. Knowlton will be very grateful to anybody having information on the subject, and The Courier-Gazette joins in her hope that this article may have some result.

Color is one of the most important features of the new Spring hats for men. For the most part, neutral shades and tones will reign supreme. Brown, in soft medium shades is fast regaining the important place it held a few years ago and will be the choice of most men. Covert, a color containing brown, grey and green is gaining in popularity. Related to this is khaki, which has a more yellow cast than covert and also promises to be one of the favorite Spring hat colors, especially when lightened up with bands of subdued bronze, blue or green. Blues and greens continue leading colors, both having a slight greyish cast. Grey in its medium shades is as good as ever.

The sea food known as the Maine scallop, and looking very much like a marshmallow, is really the abductor muscle that is employed to open and close the scallop's shell. It is the most tender and delicate tasting part of the bivalve. The rest of the creature is thrown overboard by fishermen. And speaking of the Maine scallop, there are plenty of persons ready to take their oath that it makes a sweeter and nicer stew than the Southern oyster.

There are 561,000 food stores in the U. S., or one for every 235 persons, according to the Census. Per capita sales average $77. And how much "on the cuff?"

Edna Lehto, aged 14, of Warren, sends in 33 words made from the word "cream." A fine list, and one of the best which has been offered but it contains three proper names (which were barred also a word in which the same letter was used twice (also barred). But Edna tied the best record.

One year ago Knox County census enumerators were making their rounds. In Rockland the human interrogation points were Mrs. Bernard Freeman, E. M. Hayes, J. L. Burns, N. C. Carr, Susie F. Lamb, Patricia G. Hall, John F. Karl, Frances M. Dow and Robert Sisson. —Charles L. Grant was appointed deputy sheriff at Friendship—Margaret G. Robinson, 96, died in Cushing.

mation on the subject, and The Courier-Gazette joins in her hope that this article may have some result.

The baby chick entry of Ray Higgins of Dennisville, won the sweepstakes award at the baby chick show held in connection with Farm and Home Week at the University of Maine. Mr. Higgins' entry also placed highest in hatchability but because of contest regulations he could not receive the second cup and it was awarded to Ray E. Potter, of Medway, second place winner. Highest scoring chicks were those of Joseph Martin of Van Buren. First place in the 4-H Club egg show went to Earl Norwood, Jr., of Union. The Waldoboro 4-H Club, led by Philip Lee, won for the third consecutive year the club championship for having the five highest scoring entries.

G. E. Constable of Unity was fourth and George W. Stewart of Lincolnville was fifth in the Rhode Island Red contest.

Second to tenth places in the egg show were awarded the entries of the following 4-H Club members: Donald Heyer, Waldoboro; Wilbur Sweetland, Union; Robert Heyer, Waldoboro; Conrad Miller, Waldoboro; Marion Libby, Auburn; John Thayer, South Windham; Ronald Smith, Buckfield; Arthur Burgess, Waldoboro; and Arch Dean Leavitt, Turner.

THREE-TIMES-A-WEEK

How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation. — Dan. 4: 3.

With The Theatres

Two prime favorites appear at Strand Theatre Friday-Saturday, Lionel Barrymore and Wallace Beery in "Bad Man" which gives Beery his greatest role since Pancho Lopez in "Viva Villa." Barrymore is cast as Uncle Henry Jones, the only man who dares the wrath of the Bad Man.

Bob Livingston, Bob Steele, and Rufe Davis hit an action high spot with a new Western thriller "Lone Star Raiders," which plays the Park on Friday and Saturday. The trio owning a pack of horses which they train for an Army contest. Gradually they are losing their herd which they think is due to drought and dust storms but in reality Buck Marton, also after the contest, is stampeding the boys' horses over mountain cliffs. When the boys finally find a group of wild mustangs, they decide to break them in for the contest. Marton in turn gets wind of their plans and does everything possible to prevent the 3 Mesquites from entering the race for the Army contract. Finally the race, and although it is a close contest, they manage to hit the final line first, after the most thrilling action sequence in the entire film. June Johnson (from Olsen & Johnson's "Hellzapoppin" show) is the boys' girl friend in this thrilling Western.

Liberia will spend only $91,237 on its war department this year.

Capable Candidate

Rep. Cleveland Sleeper, Jr., is the second announced candidate for speaker of the House in the next Maine Legislature.

Sleeper is serving his fourth House term. He is chairman of his party's city committee and has served on the State committee. He was educated at Hebron Academy and the University of New Hampshire.

Representative W. Mayo Payson of Portland, the majority floor leader, announced his candidacy Tuesday, and Representative Leo C. Sheong of Portland, and P. Ardinne Richardson of Strong, have been spoken of as likely aspirants. Richardson is master of the State Grange.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Rockland always responds to worthy appeals and The Home for Aged Women are most thankful to a generous friend who wishes to have her name stay "under-the-rope" for a new rug for the Assembly room. And the Home, with the President and Board of Directors are most appreciative of the fine gift.

Mrs. Charles H. Morey received a telegram Tuesday night announcing the sudden death of Charles Stevens, editor of the Danbury (Conn.) Times and News. The deceased was about 55 years of age and the husband of Frances Harrington, formerly of Rockland, who survives him together with three children. Mrs. Stevens is a cousin of City Treasurer Morey.

With the Dandy-Lions as their guests the Rockland Lions had a very happy session at Hotel Thorndike yesterday, and in honor of the joint session the management served an especially appetizing turkey dinner. L. J. Dandeneau, manager of Strand Theatre was admitted to membership with the hearty welcome and Lions roar which always greet a newcomer to the fold. The feminine guests, who proved that they also can roar, were: Mrs. Robert Gregory, Mrs. Landon Jackson, Mrs. Jack Trott, Mrs. Blake Annis, Mrs. Frances Savitt, Mrs. Stewart Orbeton, Miss Marion Ludwick, Mrs. H. S. Leach, Mrs. Gilmore Soule, Mrs. A. P. Russell and Mrs. E. E. Stoddard. The entertainment feature was a colored movie showing the Boston Ice Follies, and was presented by Joel Miller of Thomaston, with interjected remarks and explanations which added much to the interest.

TALK OF THE TOWN

As far as can be learned there were no April First casualties in Rockland. Most of the pranks were of a mild (and somewhat ancient) character.

Staff Sergeant Austin Ripley of the U. S. Air Corps of Camp Hickam Field, Hawaii, left yesterday for a 60-day furlough at his home in South Thomaston. Sergeant Ripley is a son of Mrs. Fred Ripley, who has The Courier-Gazette's thanks for a copy of Honolulu Star-Bulletin, a very elaborate publication dealing with the 41st anniversary of the Territory of Hawaii.

A notice in a Waynesville, Ohio newspaper tells of the sudden death March 22 of Adaline Alden, 87, daughter of Eben and Caroline (Stow) Alden. She was born in Rockland, and there may be a few old friends who will remember her. Miss Alden graduated from Oberlin College and until recent years had resided in Columbus, Ohio. A sister, Miss Frances Alden, is the only member of the family now living.

All the local telephones put out of order by the storm last week, were back in order Saturday, with the exception of the islands and in Monroe, which were in order Sunday. The short wave radio set was returned Saturday to Portland, and although toll circuits are now working to all circuits, the temporary repair work will not be completed until the end of the week. Permanent rebuilding will begin in the near future.

Knox Lodge I.O.O.F. and Miriam Rebekah Lodge held a get-together last week in their banquet hall, with Miss Gladys Doherty mistress of ceremonies. The following program was highly applauded: Piano solo, Beverly Kirkpatrick of Thomaston; piano duet, Miss Kirkpatrick and Miss Glenys Lermont of Thomaston; a Sally Rand fan dance, demonstrated by Carl U. Chaples of Thomaston. A social hour followed with dancing and buffet lunch.

SPRUCE HEAD
Mrs. Millegde Randall and daughter Mildred of Cape Elizabeth were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Simmons.

Mrs. Forrest Cheney, daughter Margaret and brother, Frank Tibbetts, went by bus Saturday to Milbridge. Mrs. Cheney returned Wednesday to enter Knox Hospital, leaving Margaret with Mrs. Cheney's sister, Mrs. Roger Young in Gouldsboro.

L. C. Elwell of Hewitts Island passed the weekend with his family.

Mrs. Emma Titus and Miss Mildred Waldron were in town Tuesday to visit relatives.

A Request Bout

Tomorrow night at the Park Street Arena, the management is bringing back Billy Lancaster, "The One Man Revolution," and Al Buck, at an added expense. Two weeks ago the boys showed here in a six round main event, which was said to be one of the finest boxing exhibitions seen in Rockland for some time. All who saw them two weeks ago know that these lads don't know the meaning of the word quit, who punch from the first bell to the final one, and most anything can happen when they square off. Backing up the main go, is a semi-final that should alone be worth the price of admission as it brings Carroll Frost of Lincolnville against the rough and ready "Toy Bulldog," Young Jack of Augusta. There is always plenty of action when the Augusta boy is in the squared circle. Frost, a clever, fast boxer, should give Jack a very tough evening.

The top prelim will show "Al" Wooster of Rockland, meeting Frankie Bannon of Portland. There will be two other good prelims to round out the evening. The local favorite, Jack O'Brien, will be the third man in the ring. Reserve tickets always on sale at Wahnsley's Drug Store, telephone 1204. The Arena will be plenty warm, be sure to get your seats early and avoid the rush. The first bout will go on as near 8.30 as possible.

Campaign For Funds

W. B. D. Gray Is Chairman of Salvation Army's Maintenance Drive

Salvation Army officials announce the annual maintenance campaign for funds in Thomaston.

William B. D. Gray will be chairman of the campaign, and Harry S. Stewart treasurer. The following general committee will support the campaign this year:

W. H. Brackett, Frederick C. Denison, M. D., Rev. H. F. Leach, E. F. Lynch, E. R. Moss, O. D. Miss Faustina Robinson, R. N., Alfred M. Strout, Esq., and W. B. Studley.

William B. D. Gray, chairman, stated today:

"I am writing to ask your support for the Salvation Army which, sponsored by the committee listed on this letterhead, now is conducting its annual maintenance appeal. The generous help you have given to this fine organization in the past is appreciated; thanks to that help and the help of others, the Salvation Army has been enabled to salvage thousands of broken lives, during the past year. It has assisted millions of the needy, brought new hope and inspiration to untold thousands who benefited by the services to the deserving in its shelters, hospitals, homes, food kitchens, camps and other institutions throughout America. The local program includes the provision of wholesome food, serviceable clothing and other services. For this work we appeal to you. A portion of the funds will be left in the hands of the committee to be used to meet need in this community."

"Do your best to help maintain the Salvation Army services during the coming year."

There will be a bowling tournament at Star Alloys, starting Saturday night. Real sport, real fun.—adv.

Soft Drinks Tax Levy Gets the Axe—Sunday Hunting Bill Likewise

The Maine House Tuesday swung the legislative axe on one of the first major revenue measures to come before it, a bill to levy a tax on soft drinks. The bill had come from the tax committee with an unfavorable report and, without discussion, the House concurred.

Opponents of the tax, pleased with the reception given it in the House, were mindful, however, that another bill, sponsored by Representative E. Sam Farwell of Unity, awaiting committee disposition, contained a soft drink tax provision. The Farwell bill would levy taxes on tobacco, cosmetics, amusement, candy, and jewelry sales.

The measure voted down by the House Tuesday would have placed a half-cent tax on each five-cent purchase of soft drinks, the proceeds to be used for old age assistance.

The Senate joined the House in killing a bill to permit Sunday hunting in unorganized territory.

House acceptance of a report from the Antiquary Club met Monday with Mrs. Charles Williams.

SOUTH THOMASTON

W. P. Sleeper

The death of Willard Peele Sleeper occurred March 26 at his home here. Mr. Sleeper was a life long resident and a descendant of the earliest settlers of the village.

He was born Aug. 5, 1853, the oldest of six children of Jesse and Susan (Kalloch) Sleeper. At the age of 19 he learned the stone cutting trade which he followed until 30 years of age. As a young man he went to Sacramento, Calif., where he worked on the Folsom State Prison and other granite works. He remained West five years, then returned home, and in 1888 was married to Miss Isabella Malcolm of this place. In 1894 he was foreman at the quarry of the New Brunswick Granite Co., in Calais where he resided with his family.

Returning here, he established a monumental yard of his own and for 30 years he cut and erected in Maine and Massachusetts a great many beautiful memorials which are examples of great skill and painstaking work. At the age of 81, with his two daughters and sister, Mrs. Rebecca Thorndike, he motored to California. He enjoyed the trip with the zest of a boy, his only regret being that his wife could not be with them. Mr. Sleeper having died in 1931.

About two years ago, his health began to fail although he was still active and his memory and interest in events of the day remained as keen as formerly. Since Christmas he had failed rapidly and had received every care and attention from his daughters, especially Miss Susie Sleeper who made her home with him.

Mr. Sleeper had served his town as first selectman from 1906 to 1910 and again in 1919 and 1920. He had a great affection for his home and hometown, and always said on returning from visits elsewhere that it was the place he loved best.

Mr. Sleeper was a member of Knox Lodge, F.A.M., having joined that order nearly 50 years ago and had served in its offices. His most outstanding characteristics were his honesty and dependability. He was the kind of citizen which every town needs, and his death is regretted by all who knew him.

He leaves two daughters, Miss Susie Sleeper who resided at home and is a teacher in a Rockland school, Miss Helen Sleeper, a member of the faculty of the State Teachers College of Bridgewater, Mass.; one sister, Mrs. Rebecca Thorndike; one brother, Albert Sleeper; six nephews, Henry Sleeper of Whitling, Ind., George and Cleveland Sleeper of Rockland, Mass., Stanton and Jesse Sleeper; seven nieces, Mrs. Laura Street of Worcester, Mass., Mrs. Marion Scrivens of Wilton, Mrs. Ruth Drinkwater of Spruce Head, Mrs. Elizabeth Noonan of Owl's Head, Miss Mary Sleeper of Bangor, Miss Marjorie Sleeper and Mrs. Carolyn Davis of this place.

Funeral services were held at the home Saturday, Rev. H. R. Winchenbach officiating and the Masonic service being held. There was a great profusion of beautiful flowers testifying to the esteem of his many friends.

George Brown of Everett, Mass., has returned home after spending a few days at the Sleeper home. Mrs. Marion Scrivens of Wilton was also in town Saturday to attend the funeral. Miss Helen Sleeper has returned to Bridgewater, and Miss Susie Sleeper will board at Freeman Young's in Rockland for a time.

Aids Mrs. Lizzie McCarrison Celebrate Her 91st Birthday

Appleton, March 31

Erect of form, fair of face, keen of mind and immaculately dressed and groomed from silken clad and lovely graying hair, four ladies—Lizzie McCarrison, Adella Gushee, Julia Morse and Adella Pitman—whose combined ages number 347 years, met at the home of Mrs. Hugh McCarrison to eat birthday cake and ice cream on Mrs. Lizzie McCarrison's 91st birthday.

Many cards, gifts and letters from friends in different States ranging from California to Maine gave evidence of the high esteem in which Mrs. McCarrison is held. She has been a faithful member of Golden Rod Rebekah Lodge for 40 years, having filled all offices in the Lodge as well as that of district deputy president. She is a member of the assembly and of the Past Grands Association of Knox and Lincoln counties.

Mrs. McCarrison is mentally alert, eyesight and hearing perhaps not quite as good as a year ago, but still able to keep in touch with current events through newspaper articles which interest her, and at least one library book each week.

Always an expert and pleasing correspondent she systematically adheres to her custom of answering all her letters within a stated time in order, as she says, that she may have more to answer.

As it came over the air on her anniversary, "Here's to Aunt Lizzie McCarrison of Appleton, Me., 91 years old today. What do you know about that?"

A "Button" Party

Mrs. Margaret Newbert Was Host To An Unique Family Gathering

March 20 Mrs. Margaret Newbert of North Waldoboro entertained the Mother and Daughter's Club consisting of Mrs. Flora Post, Mrs. Barbara Post, Mrs. Elvie Wooster and Mrs. Ruby Allen of Rockland, Mrs. Bernys Jameson and daughter, Mrs. Lydia Morse and Miss Phyllis Newbert of Waldoboro, two other members of the family were unable to be present by reason of sickness—Mrs. Sarah Robinson and Mrs. Lesa Derrah of Waldoboro and Portland. The morning was spent in crocheting bedspreads and tablecloths. In the afternoon all work was dispensed with when Mrs. Newbert, the mother, entertained the company with her wonderful collection of buttons, every button representing a friend. Mrs. Newbert keeps a book in which every friend's name is written down, and of course it's a big book as her friends are legion, many of them residents of other States, so one can imagine what that fine collection of buttons means to her.

It goes without saying that when Mrs. Newbert prepares a meal it is sure to be a palatable one, so the dinner served on that occasion was no exception. Mrs. Lydia Morse and Mrs. Ruby Allen were guests of honor.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Newbert's daughter, Mrs. Lesa Derrah, in Portland.

May it be said in closing that as the writer has viewed the members of this unique family, he considers them as handsome, husky and happy (pardon the alliteration) a family as any escutcheon can display.

The Opportunity Class will meet tonight with Mrs. Frances Clark, Limerock street.

The Knox County Poultry Association meeting, according to President Lester Shibles of Rockport, will be held April 29. Professor Smyth of the poultry department at the University of Maine will be the speaker. Knox County poultrymen should keep this date open. Place of meeting to be announced.

At the New England Dairy meeting held in Union the past week, County Agent Wentworth, and Herbert Hawes of Union, a member of the county pasture improvement committee, discussed pasture work. Both stressed the importance of getting more feed out of the pastures in the county.

With the Homes

Charlotte Waltz, secretary of the Damariscotta Farm Bureau group, reported a very interesting meeting on Scrapbooks and Hobbies at the Biscay Community House. Fifteen women attended. Miss Waltz and Mrs. Norris Waltz, served dinner consisting of scalloped fish, baked potatoes, spinach, carrot sticks, cake bread, and apple dumplings. Scrapbooks and hobbies were displayed. There were buttons, salt and pepper shakers, aprons, quilt patterns, cacti, newspaper clippings, stamp collection, match covers and others. Each person explained her hobby.

"Sewing Secrets" was the name of the meeting which Mrs. John Buzzell of Simonton conducted for her group. Wrist pin cushions, buttons attached to different ways, bias binding samplers attached with machine binder attachment, stitching over pins, machine gathering, and belt stiffeners were all demonstrated. Mrs. Gershom Walden and Mrs. David Wooster served the dinner. Plans were made to pay expenses of the members who could attend Farm and Home Week for one day.

Mrs. Jennie Gamage, foods leader at South Bristol, entertained the farm bureau at her home and conducted the meeting on "Potatoes Many Ways." She instructed various members to prepare the dishes as follows: Potato muffins, Mrs. Ethel Frye; potato soup, Mrs. Margaret House and Mrs. Charlotte Engley; creamed haddock and potatoes, Mrs. Helen Kelsey; macedoine salad, Mrs. Lettie Kelsey and Mrs. Geraldine Kelsey; and potato and carrot pudding, Mrs. Jennie Gamage. Material on U. S. standards for potatoes, cooking the potato, and potatoes for health were read and discussed.

"Meat Specialties" has been the subject of meetings held by several women's farm bureau groups the past month. The purpose is to encourage consumption of some of the muscular organs which are so high in food value—liver, heart, kidneys, etc. The menu served at noon consisted of: meat specialties, parsley potatoes, carrot sticks, dark bread, molasses cookies and apple sauce. There will be two more meetings in this series—one at Whitefield, Thursday, April 10; and at Hope, Thursday, April 17. At these, Mr. Wentworth has taken up how to raise more home produced—eat, fruits, and vegetables and explained that it is efficient and good business to get as much as possible of one's living from the farm. He also explains home cold storage plants and the garden seed pools. The home demonstration agent assisted each woman in making out a moderate cost diet for her family. Canning was also discussed.

WASHINGTON—AND YOU

By Margaret Chase Smith

Washington, April 2—While the Maritime Commission does not favor the establishment of additional State nautical schools at this time, it says that there may arise need for increasing training facilities as a result of the expansion of American shipping or of other changing conditions.

Having introduced a bill for a State nautical school at Rockland, I inquired of Chairman Bland of the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, which the bill is now before the committee, Mr. Bland transmitted refreshments after the meeting. Norman Kelsey, former member and leader of a club in Walpole, plans to organize a new boys' club to be held on Wednesday evening in South Bristol. The meetings are at Mr. Wesley's home.

Hilda and Sylvia Koppenhauer entertained the Jolly Trollers, at their home. Plans were made for a penny carnival to be held with the Weymouth Grange of Thomaston, April 8. Eugene Pales, Arthur Anderson, and Joseph Richards will repeat a demonstration on "First Aid" which they gave March 7. Ellen Stein was announced as the winner of the judging contest on buttonholes.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent or scanty passages with burning and stinging sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

"When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness."

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Don's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Don's Pills.

to me a report from the Maritime Commission on the subject of State nautical schools, which said that existing facilities are sufficient for present needs, but leaving the door open in case our merchant shipping should require more trained men.

There is general legislation, passed in 1931, authorizing the Secretary of the Navy, upon application of the Governor of any State, to provide a suitable vessel and equipment for State nautical schools. Named in this legislation are Boston, Philadelphia, New York, Seattle, San Francisco, Baltimore, Detroit, Saginaw, (Michigan), Norfolk, and Corpus Christi (Texas). My bill would add Rockland to this list.

When the President issued his reorganization order of June, 1939, the control of the nautical schools was transferred from the Navy to the Maritime Commission. There are now four State schools, one each in Boston, New York, Philadelphia and San Francisco.

The Commission maintains two training services. One is the Cadet Training System and the other is the U. S. Maritime Service. Under the Cadet Training System, young American citizens who qualify in national competitive examinations are given a four year course of training, which includes three years at sea and one year on shore, to equip them to become licensed officers in the Merchant Marine.

The US Maritime Service, which is administered by the Coast Guard, gives training to (1) licensed and unlicensed men who have had some experience in the Merchant Marine and (2) apprentices in deck, engine, radio and stewards departments. The Commission now has five training stations in operation, with an annual capacity of 4400 men, and a sixth station is being prepared, with a capacity of 500 enrollees per year. Two of the stations are for further training of licensed officers who have had experience at sea. These are at Fort Trumbull, New London, Connecticut, and at Government Island, Alameda, California.

The Commission also has two training stations for unlicensed merchant seamen, with previous sea experience. They are at Hoffman

Island, in New York Harbor, and at Alameda.

Apprentices are trained at St. Petersburg, Fla., and Gallups Island, in Boston Harbor; and the third station is being established at Huenehne, California.

Seeing the great development of the shipbuilding industry in Maine, I feel that demand for trained seamen will increase. Other seamen will not be endangered by this training. I feel, because of the great demand for workers in every line for defense which is taking up the unemployed. The Merchant Marine is a part of our defense, for our commerce and as an auxiliary to our Navy. Whether State schools or more Commission schools are the best method is something which I hope will be argued out if and when the House Committee grants me a hearing on my bill.

At a recent meeting of the Theta Sigma Phi journalistic sorority, I met Mrs. Vergil D. Reed, wife of the Acting Director of the Census, who told me that Bibles are a "best seller." I was interested in what she said about it, and today received a letter from Director Reed, enclosing information about the Bible sales, and offering any other service. The census gathers so much information that I shall avail myself of his offer, especially in regard to the census surveys made of manufacturing establishments and business in 1940 which may serve as a nucleus for defense industry now.

Mr. Reed said that while the production of Bibles showed a great increase in 1939, the publication of fiction showed a heavy decline. In 1939 the output of Bibles was 7,927,848, which is about two million more than in 1937.

The War Department tells me that 604 chapels are to be built in camps, posts and stations throughout the United States. This will include Catholic, Protestant and Jewish. It is a new thing, this taking religious services out of improvised buildings and open fields, and is the greatest religious undertaking the Army has ever assumed. The cost is estimated at over $12,000,000 and the program will be completed in six months. Each chapel will cost about $21,220, seat 400 men, will have an electric organ, and will be a steel-roofed, frame building, with a slant at the front—much like our Maine churches. Maine mothers may be sure that their boys at camp can go to church if they want to. I was much interested in the attitude of the Army toward religion.

The chapel program reflects the Army's concern for the moral welfare and spiritual training of the men—"It is part of the Army's determination to fulfill its duty to God as well as to country," the War Department said.

The chapels will be used for cultural activities also during the week. Miss Blanche Bernier, of Skowhegan, assistant secretary in my office, was chosen publicity chairman for the Maine State Society of Washington at its annual election meeting. The next regular meeting will be held Monday, April 7.

My acquaintance with Republicans from all over the country was pleasantly widened at the meeting here of the Republican National Committee meeting last week. Many of the Republican Committeewomen I met either at the Federation of Republican Women's Clubs in Detroit last year or on my speaking trips during the campaign and since. It was good to get together and talk over Republican affairs, at the tea given by Marion Martin, of Bangor, assistant chairman of the Committee for the Committee members and the women of Congress; at the party given by Representative Joe Martin, of Massachusetts, Chairman of the Committee, for the Committee. Members of Congress, and the press; also at a buffet supper given for the Committee members and a few Congressmen by Representative Frances Bolton, of Ohio, who has a Summer place at Prott's Neck. I am pleased that Mr. Martin is to keep the chairmanship and that Miss Martin will stay on for the women's division, thus keeping both top places in New England.

CAMDEN FOG BELL

The U. S. Coast Guard has informed Senator Ralph O. Brewster of Maine that an automatic fog bell has been ordered installed on Curtis Island at the entrance of Camden Harbor. The bell will be electrically operated. The Camden Yacht Building and Marine Railway asked Brewster to urge this improvement on the Coast Guard to facilitate fishing boats and commerce in that vicinity.
